DETAILED ACTION

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The Brief Description of the Drawings must be amended to include Fig. 6.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Middleton in view of Walters.

Middleton teaches a seat back for a chair comprising a support panel 20 to contact a seated person; a back panel 44; and a flap portion 28 extending from a top of the support panel and folding over the top and toward a back of the support panel, the flap portion capable of having indicia attached thereto, wherein the flap portion is not secured to a back of the chair but stands away from the back of the chair (See Figs. 1 and 2) substantially as claimed except for the indicia attached to the flap portion.

The patent to Walters teaches a seat back for a chair including a flap 36 with indicia (a place card, col. 4, lines 35-37) attached thereto, wherein the flap has a transparent window 38 with a pocket for attaching an item thereto (a place card) to be old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the Middleton device such that it had a window pocket for attachment of indicia as taught to be old by Waters thereby providing the obvious advantage of facilitating indicia display and attachment.

To attach the indicia by hook and loop fasteners or elasticized loop fasteners is considered to be an obvious mechanical expedient since Waters teaches temporary attachment means for the back flap to be "buttons 42, hook and loop fastener material (e.g. Velcro, tm) and/or snaps 46" (col. 4, lines 50-51), by way of example. Clearly, one of ordinary skill in the art would choose an appropriate known mechanical fastener such as Velcro or elasticized loop fasteners.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 9 is allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/16/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the head rest flap of the seat cover of Middleton does not stand away from the back of the seat presenting the panel to those seated behind it. The Examiner disagrees. As seen in Figures 1 and 2, which show the cover positioned on a seat, flap 28 is clearly separated from the back of the seat on which it is covering. Middleton specifically recites that the flap 28 is placed over the back rest portion 16 of the seat as shown in Figs. 1 and 2 (Col. 2, lines 53-54), and that the cover is not secured to the seat 12 (col. 3, lines 35-36), which is clearly illustrated in Figs. 1 and 2.

The rejection is proper as stands.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
